This book is an edited volume on Human Rights in India and rapid expansion of the subject, and its scope in the contemporary era. The book analyses and interrogates issues, policies, and responses related with Human Rights, and its penetration among various social groups, classes, and sections of society in the recent past. Each article also deals on Human Rights, both as a subject of study and field of study, on various aspects related with gender, state, society, governance, climate change, environment, and other pertinent issues associated with the theme.

Dr. Jipson V. Paul, is a Senior Asst. Professor in the Post-Graduate & Research Dept. of Political Science, St. Mary's College, Sulthan Bathery, Wayanad, Kerala, affiliated to University of Calicut. He completed his PhD and MPhil Degree from School of International Relations and Politics from Mahatma Gandhi University Kottayam. His published works include: Development Dialogue: A Panoramic View of India (2017), Tribal Education in India: Issues, Policies and Approaches of Kerala (2020), Musings in Contemporary Politics: A Left Approach (Malayalam-2020). A number of research and policy articles of the author have been published in various National and International Journals, and is a regular contributor in national daily also. He has attended a number of National and International seminars, conferences, and workshops.
